Washington, Jan. 21 .- Maj. W. H.

Daly, chief surgeon with Gen. Miles, and whose field service stretched from Tampa to Porto Rico, and whose re-port condemning the beef furnished the expeditionary forces created a sensation some weeks ago, made his long-awaited appearance as a witness before the war investigating commission. Surgeon Daly's report was the strongest in language of those sub-mitted by Gen. Miles in substantiation of his attack on the beef supplies Dr. Daly has been too ill to appear heretofore. He was accompanied by Gen. Miles' own stenographer, despite the presence of the con cial stenographer.

IDENTIFIED HIS REPORT. On being sworn the witness identi-fied the report_submitted as his own, changing its date however, from September 31 to October 31. He was willing, he said, to stand by his report. It was wholly voluntary, and was not called out by any request or in obedience to any circular or letter, so far as he remembered. He had heard nothing | sage from Agoncillo, Aguinaaldo's repof an official circular calling for reports. At Ponce, however, some time between August 1 and 12, he believed he had communicated to Gen. Miles some observations regarding beef sup-plies. At Tampa, on ship board, he had noticed a quarter of beef hanging the gravest anxiety among the Fili-free in the sun, and he became inter-pinos here. Paganism a Foe to Christianity on the Islands Besides the Lingering Remnants of Hawalian Heathenism, There are the Shinto and Buddhist Beliefs Imported from China and Japan.

Boston, Jan. 24.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions has just received an interesting report on the present condition of the Hawaiian islands. The report is from Rev. J. Leadingham. After stating that intoxication is ruining scores cess of $3,000. The burglars would have secured $3,000 more had not an unexpected accident occurred. This was the escape of a young farmer, James Rolfe, whom they held captive in the bank all through their operations.

Rolfe had lately come from Blue Istand, Ill., to visit his uncle in the vicinity of Arthur. During the night he was dispatched to town for a physician to attend a sick child. Being a stranger in the town, he inquired for he physician's office. The persons accorded with the proposed accident occurred. This was dispatched to town, he inquired for he physician's office. The persons accested were the men on guard outside the bank while their partners did the work inside.

This is the doctor's office, young man," said one of the robbers. "Get right down off that horse and come in."

As he said this he shoved an ugly revolver in the farmer's face. Rolfe at once went inside. He was placed under an armed guard and his shoes were removed. He was present during the robbery, but as it was dark he could not recognize the men. One of them had a gray beard, but his face was only seen for an instant from the flash of the explosion.
